

Frankish Annals: Texts – Transmission – Editions

Wuppertal, 15-16 September 2022

Thursday, 15 September

Session	Time	Speaker
1 Words of welcome. Introduction	9:00 - 9:30	Martin Karrer, Sören Kaschke, Bart van Hees
2.1 Works, editions and paradigms	9:30 - 10:15	Richard Corradini: Historiography – The Rhizome of Time Diagnosis
Coffee break	10:15 - 10:45
2.2 Works, editions and paradigms	10:45 - 11:30	Max Diesenberger: Salzburg annals in their manuscript context
2.3 Works, editions and paradigms	11:30 - 12:15	Jennifer Davis: Classifying annals
Lunch break	12:15 - 14:00
3.1 Annals in action	14:00 - 14:30	Robert Flierman: Breaking the Pattern. Main stories, side-stories and narrative digressions in the eighth-century Frankish Annals
3.2 Annals in action	14:30 - 15:00	Bob Evans: Continuity and change in Carolingian annals: The evidence of the ninth century
Joint discussion	15:00 - 15:30
Coffee break	15:30 - 16:00
4.1 Reception	16:00 - 16:30	Rosamond McKitterick: Frankish annals and news from Rome
4.2 Reception	16:30 - 17:00	Rutger Kramer: Laminated History: The Many Authors of the Chronicon Moissiacense
Joint discussion	17:00 - 17:30
Break	17:30 - 18:00
5.1 Evening Lecture	18:00 - 19:00	Steffen Patzold

Frankish Annals: Texts – Transmission – Editions

Wuppertal, 15-16 September 2022

Friday, 16 September

Session	Time	Speaker
6.1 Editions in practice	9:00 - 9:30	Niklas Fröhlich: Compilation and modification: Thoughts about a common practice of both Late Antique and Early Medieval chroniclers and modern editors
6.2 Editions in practice	9:30 - 10:00	Clemens Radl: Editing complexity – The digital future of Frankish annals
Joint discussion	10:00 - 10:30
Coffee break	10:30 - 11:00
7.1 Perspectives	11:00 - 11:30	Patrick Marschner: The Role of Annals in the so called Chronicon Moissiacense and Chronicon Anianense . Annals as Cause and Consequence in Historiographical Compositions?
7.2 Perspectives	11:30 - 12:00	Matthias M. Tischler: The look from the Empire's Periphery: Non-rewriting the Frankish annals in Septimania and Catalonia
Joint discussion	12:00 - 12:30
7.3 Perspectives	12:30 - 13:00	Helmut Reimitz: Conclusions, opportunities and challenges

Venue:

Bergische Universität Wuppertal
Gaußstr. 20
Room K.11.10
42119 Wuppertal
Germany

Due to the limited space available, visitors are kindly asked to register in advance by 2 September 2022.
For registration and questions, please contact:

vanhees@uni-wuppertal.de soeren.kaschke@uni-koeln.de